12. Questions and answers

I can't find the Create account button.

Tick the terms box first, and fill in your name, email and password.

It says my email already has an account.

Use Log in, or Forgot password? to set a new password.

The challenge card is greyed out.

It is Disabled by the organisers or not open yet. Check the timer on the card and try again later.

I opened a challenge link but landed on the Challenges page.

That challenge is currently disabled. You'll see a short message at the top of the page.

My browser closed during the quiz.

Open the challenge again and select RESUME CHALLENGE. The timer keeps running while you are away.

Can I take a day again?

No — each day allows one attempt. If something went wrong technically, contact the organisers.

Why can't I see my score?

Results are announced by the organisers. Until then you only see "Answers submitted".

I missed a day.

Each day has its own window. You can still take the remaining days while they are open.

My name is wrong on the pass.

Correct it in Profile, then open the pass again and download it.

The site looks odd or doesn't update.

Refresh the page (Ctrl + F5 on a computer), or try another browser.

13. Community guidelines and privacy

- Take each challenge yourself and don't share questions or answers — it keeps the challenge fair for everyone.
- One account per person, using your own details.
- Your profile is used to run the event: your pass, check-in and results. Organisers can see your name, company and participation.
- Be respectful in the community and at the event.
